Search the Database of Events

You will usually start on the event search webpage. Here, you will browse events already listed by universities. If you type in your school name, these event listings will be specific to your institution. Events include university and college taster days, workshops, residential events, open days, outreach events, and widening participation opportunities added by universities UK-wide. Everything from a Business Masterclass for your Year 9s through to a Fees and Finance workshop for your Year 12s!

While most events will be for school groups, there are also events listed for students. Please share the details!

Find Regional University Contacts

Many universities employ regional school and college experts located throughout the UK.

These regional advisers often reside in the areas they support, resulting in reduced travel time and a smaller carbon footprint for school visits. Regional advisers also possess a deep understanding of your students and communities, offering a broader range of universities to consider and connect with, supporting students to make informed decisions about their future destinations.

Q Search

Request Events Directly from Universities

If you can't find an event on the main search pages to meet your needs, you can also request an event to be delivered by a university. Just fill out the details in a simple 'Request an Event' form, which will then be sent to the universities you select.

This can be used for any type of event you have in mind, including subject-specific events, career fair invitations, and general university visits to schools or universities.

Request your own university event for your school groups

You supply your event requirements. We will put you in touch.

Register for the Events-by-Email Newsletter

Join thousands of school and college colleagues who have registered for the Events-by-Email newsletter. Receive event updates, resources such as videos, news on podcast releases, and more. Upon registration, you'll also be able to access your electronic Teachers' Guide to the University brochure.

Receive the UniTasterDays School and College newsletter

Featuring event updates, webinar releases and university resources

Access University Resources for You

Including display screen content for screens in your school, notice board posters, and your own Teachers' Guide to University brochure.

Share University Resources with your Students

This includes The Uni Guide Podcast, a student guide to university brochure, and the UK's first video subject guide! Please do share the details with your students!
